

Subpoena Response Services

Reduce costs, increase efficiency, and allow in-house staff to focus on higher priority matters.

Experienced lawyers and legal professionals to handle your subpoena responses from start-to-finish with strict processes to ensure accuracy and consistency.

Elevate simplifies responses to law enforcement requests, third-party subpoenas, and ordinary course business requests like employment verification.

- Custom managed process for intake, review, and response
- Coordination with your team to efficiently gather and produce relevant documents
- Litigators to narrow scope and search terms, draft objections or motions to quash, and engage with issuing counsel as necessary
- Elevate lawyers work with document review teams as needed to ensure timely and secure productions
- Recovery of costs of production where allowed by jurisdiction

With

1600+

global professionals, cutting edge technology and experience, the Elevate law company and law firm deliver litigation representation and support where and when you need it.

Why choose Elevate for subpoena response services?

- Strict adherence to standard operating procedures and playbooks for reliable and defensible law enforcement request and subpoena responses
- Proven reduction in cost of responding and turn-around time on each request
- Integrated process design, project management, AI, machine learning, and other technologies