

TOP 3 TIPS

TO QUALIFY AS A SOLICITOR IN THE UK

BARBRI VIRTUAL FUTURE LAWYERS CONVENTION

NETWORK, NETWORK, NETWORK!

Attend law fairs, networking events, alumni socials, and seminars. Utilise social media by joining relevant law groups on LinkedIn, reaching out to and follow senior legal professionals, and asking for advice or mentoring.

BE SPECIFIC AND TAILOR YOUR APPLICATIONS

Ensure your CV, cover letter, and personal statement are tailored to the specific Qualifying Work Experience (QWE) opportunity you're applying for. Highlight relevant skills or experiences gained through extracurricular activities, internships, or work experience. Focus on what makes you stand out and your personal brand!

BE OPEN

Be open to different types of QWE opportunities. Each opportunity can provide valuable insights into different areas of law, offer new contacts, and help you better understand your specialisation interests. Keep your targeted goal in mind while making the most of all available opportunities!

