

Elevate is an expert-led, software-powered law company.

Elevate's eDiscovery team delivers efficient, defensible support across the board—from straightforward projects to the most complex matters.

What Differentiates Us?

Industry-leading experts have optimised our day-to-day workflows, without the heavy premiums and can step in on live matters, when needed.

Our eDiscovery consultants handle the largest, most complex matters efficiently and defensibly.

Our scientists, led by Jeremy Pickens - designer of a leading TAR tool - advise on statistics, TAR/AI workflows, and AI discovery.

Experienced developers create custom scripts and tools for Relativity, transforming complex data into review-ready formats.

Our team integrates expertise to identify scientific needs and opportunities for automation or handling complex data.
